

HISTORY

1929 Anthony James Charlton was born, later to become Chief Executive.

1910 - Charltons supply timber pit props to the nearby coal mines.

1903 Frank Charlton established Charltons when he made the decision to diversify from farming to hauling timber.

1923 - Charltons purchase a coal business, which made return trips from the pit heads more profitable.

2000 Charltons was granted the Royal Warrant for the supply of gates and timber to the Royal households, Charltons still hold the Warrant and has now supplied the Royal Households for over 15 years.

1995 Charltons start retailing furniture.

2002 Charltons start concentrating on wholesaling a collection of Oak furniture.

1980 Charltons starts making hand made furniture from English Oak.

Today Charltons remains a family company with the fourth generation very much the 'heart and soul' of the modern organisation.

Chairs – The Charlton chair range offers high quality construction and classic styling. The oak chairs have solid frames, finished in natural oil or lacquered to your choice. There are a variety of designs to suit country and contemporary living
